(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 15 ,17, 23, and 24 are rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by David 5,188,323. David discloses a vertical support member. (Figure 2) including an interior cavity, a pulley system (figure 3), a horizontal support member (40), clamp (36 and 35), a brake block (51).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7-10, 21, and 22 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

In response to the applicant's argument that David does not disclose an easel this argument is hereby traversed. The support apparatus of David clearly teaches an easel in the broadest sense of the term since by definition within The Random House College Dictionary Revised Edition defines "easel" as "any stand or frame for displaying objects, as paintings, china, etc" which as disclosed the stand David is clearly capable of supporting varies types of work pieces. The supporting members (14) would be capable of supporting a hanging painting or the lower surface of a work piece since artist work pieces come in a variety of shapes and sizes and the applicant has not positively claimed the artist work piece.

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., work piece) not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3632

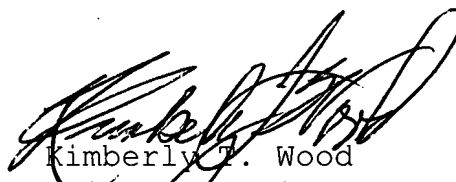

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
